

ISET POLICY PULSE

ISET is Leading the Way in Internationally Recognized Education

ISET's Master in Finance program received the CFA Institute affiliation, making it the only academic program in Georgia to achieve this professional honor. This affiliation signifies that ISET's Master in Finance meets the global 'golden standard' in the finance industry set by the CFA international study program. It ensures that students receive an internationally recognized quality education in finance, enhancing their competitiveness worldwide. Through this affiliation, students gain access to numerous CFA Institute resources, including scholarships, study materials, and professional networking opportunities. ISET students will graduate with knowledge that holds international recognition, making them competitive on a global scale. Additionally, ISET's economics programs are also distinguished by their international accreditation, reinforcing the institution's commitment to excellence in education.
